

The Art and Practice of Community Collaboration

Eric Higbee, Executive Director

POMEGRANATE CENTER

Community

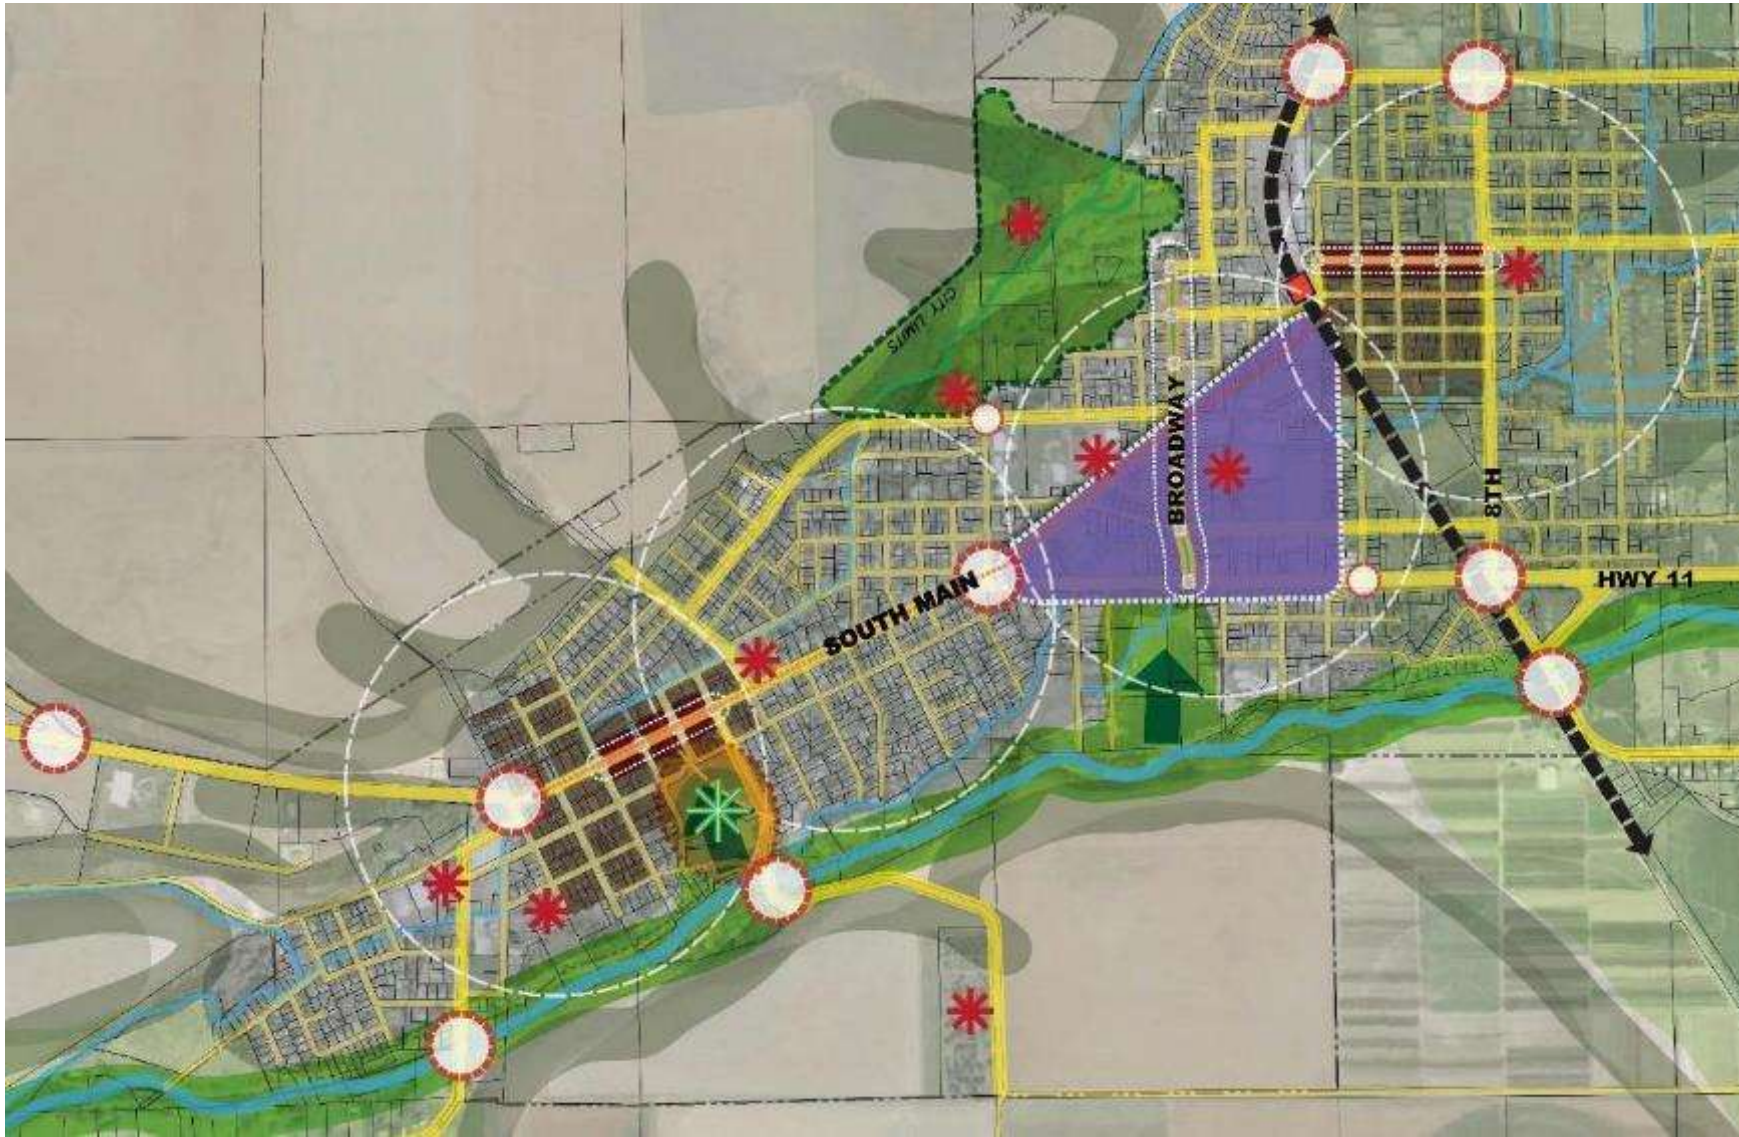

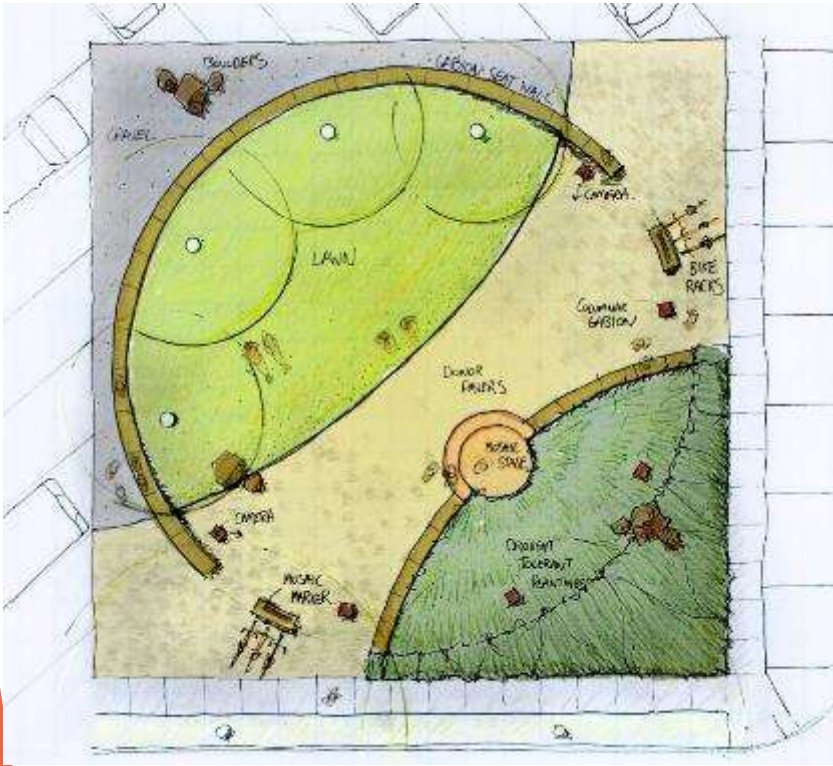

Milton-Freewater, OR

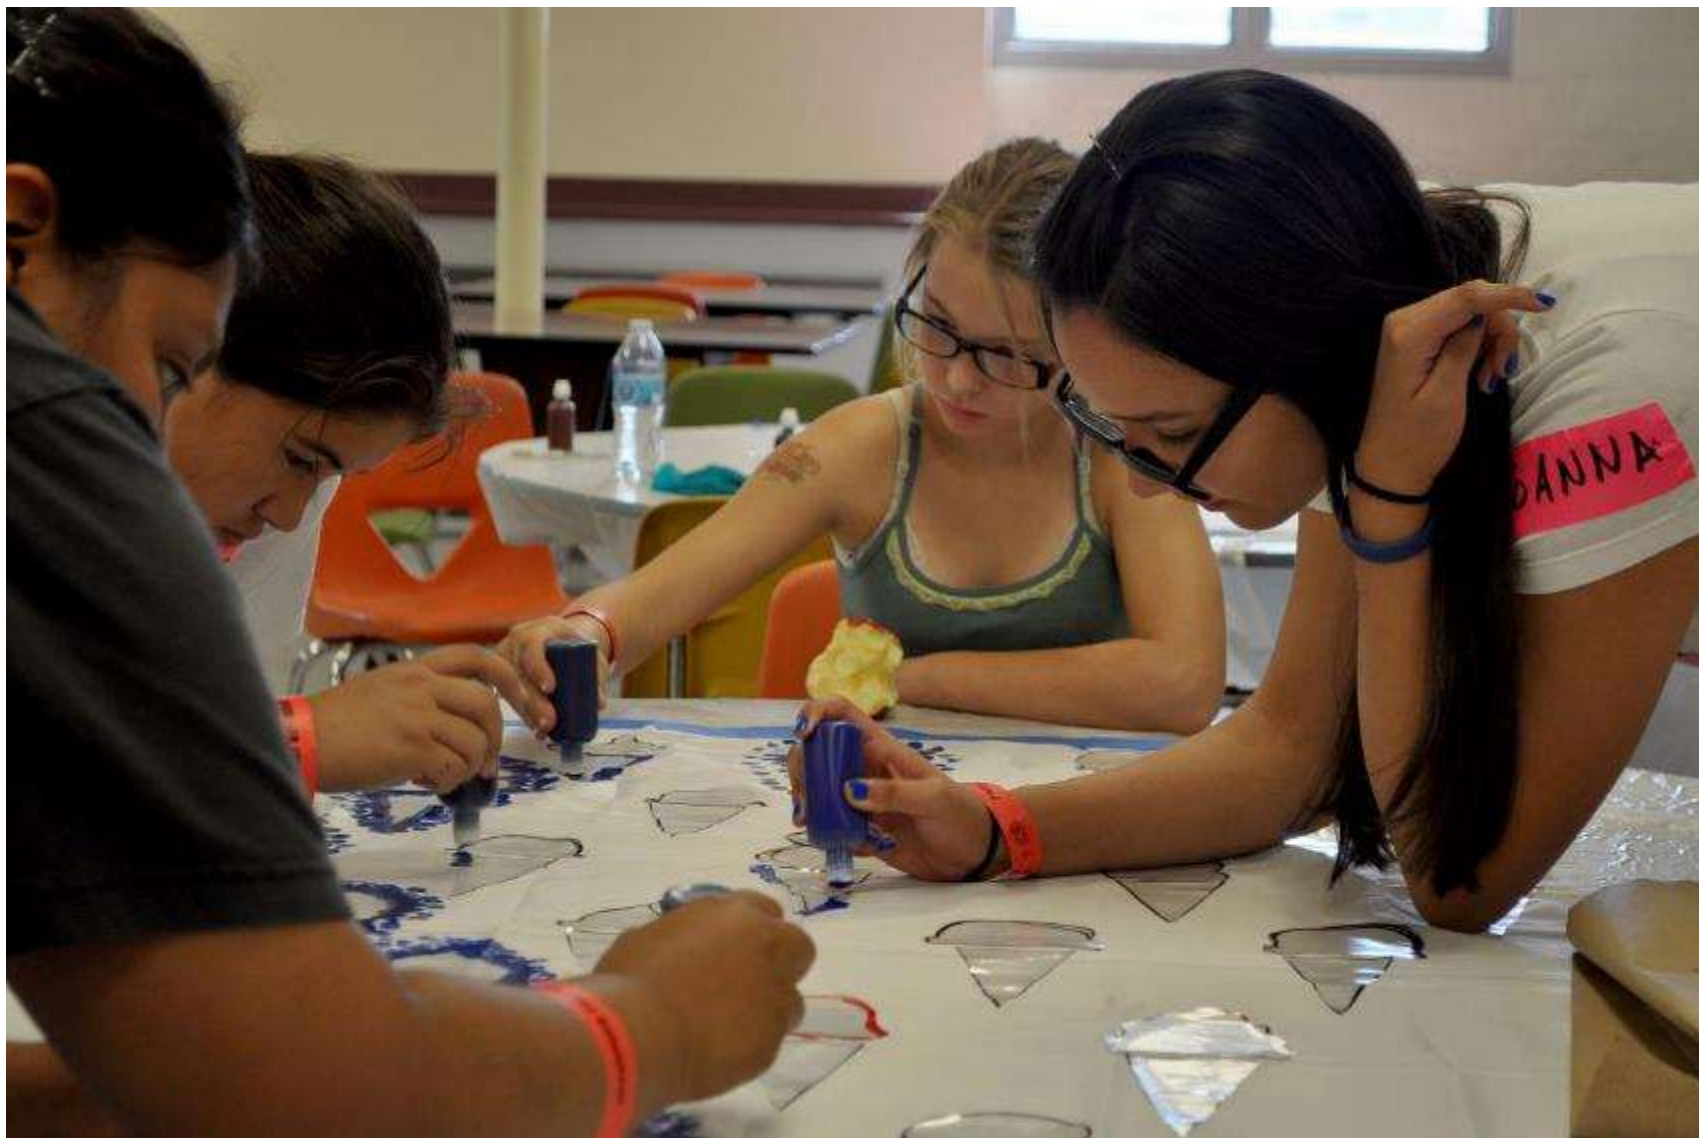

- 5 months start to finish
- 4 days building
- 260 Volunteers
- 4000 volunteer hours
- $20k donated labor and materials

What makes it work?

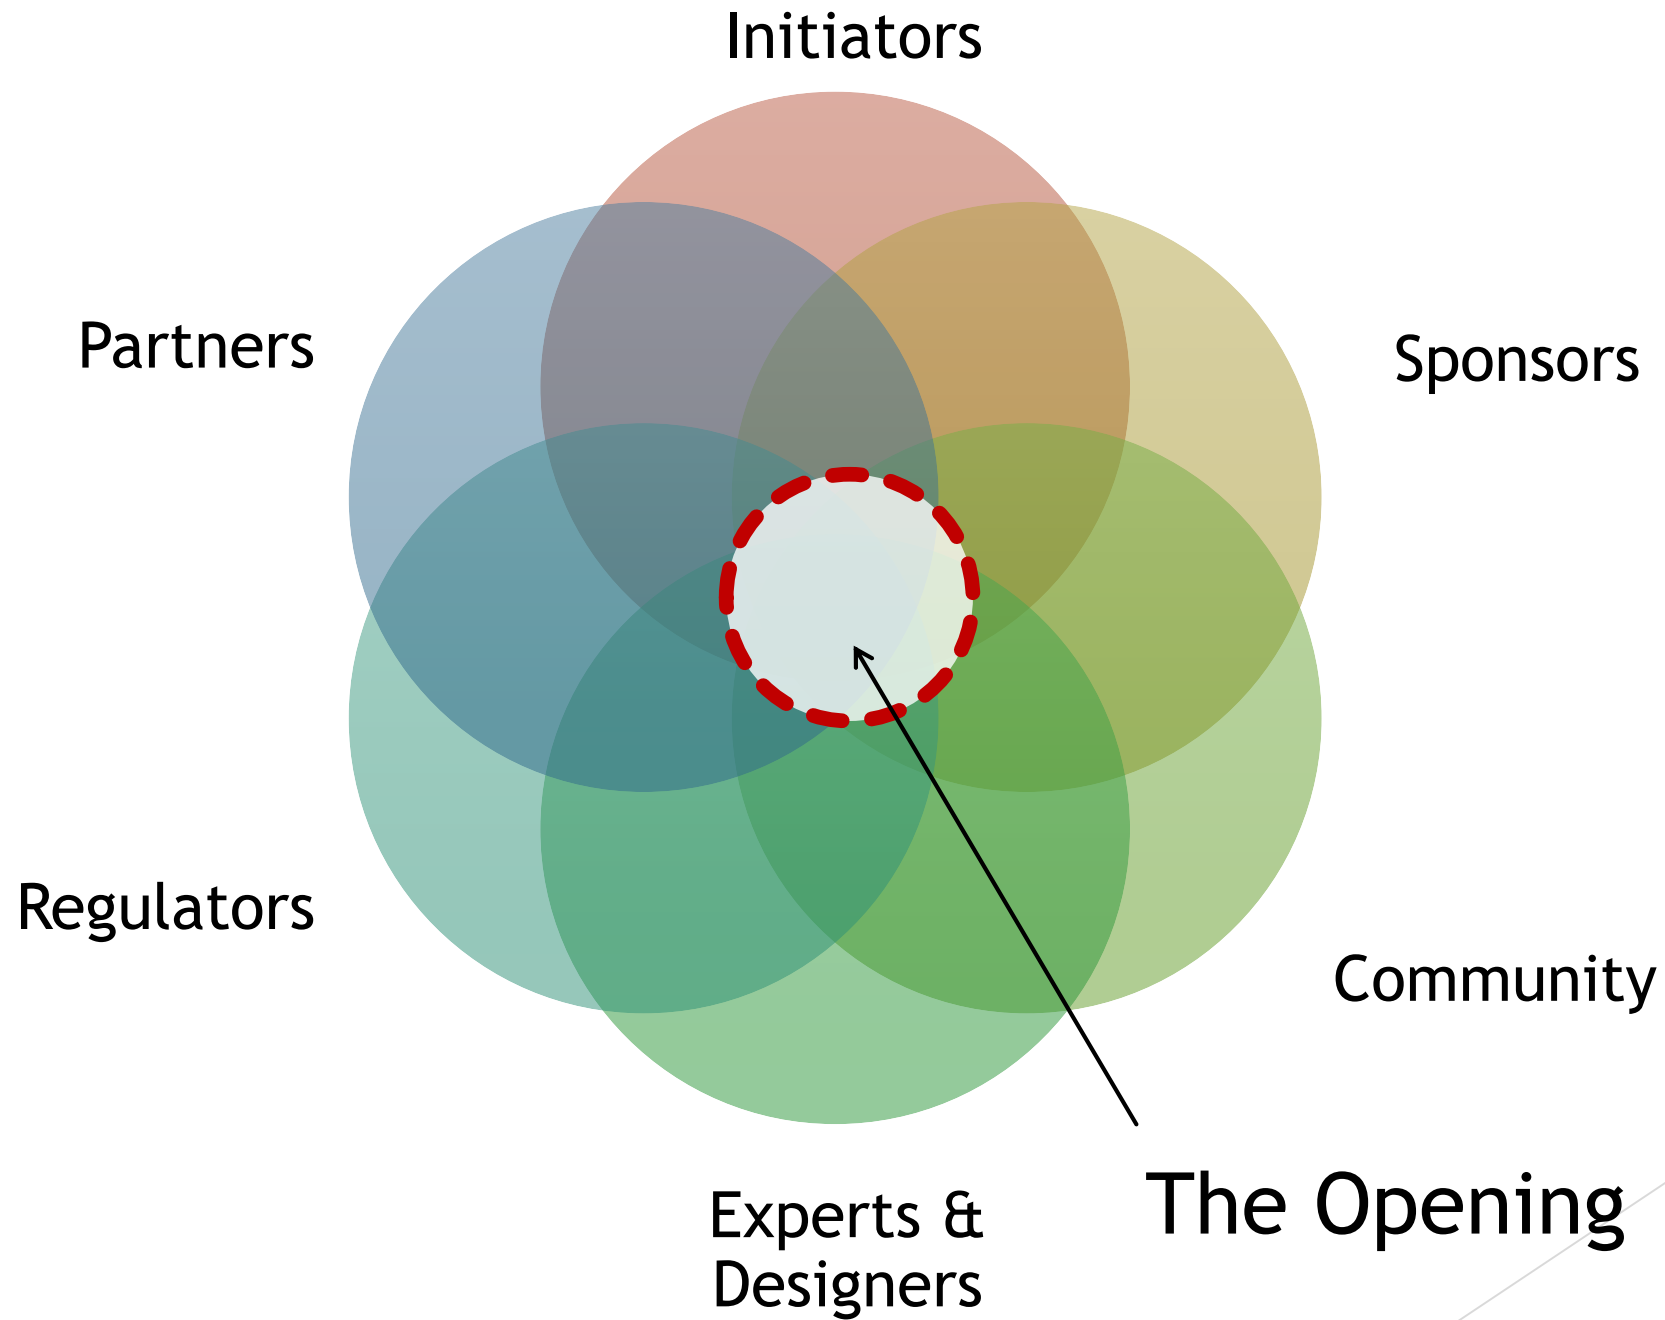

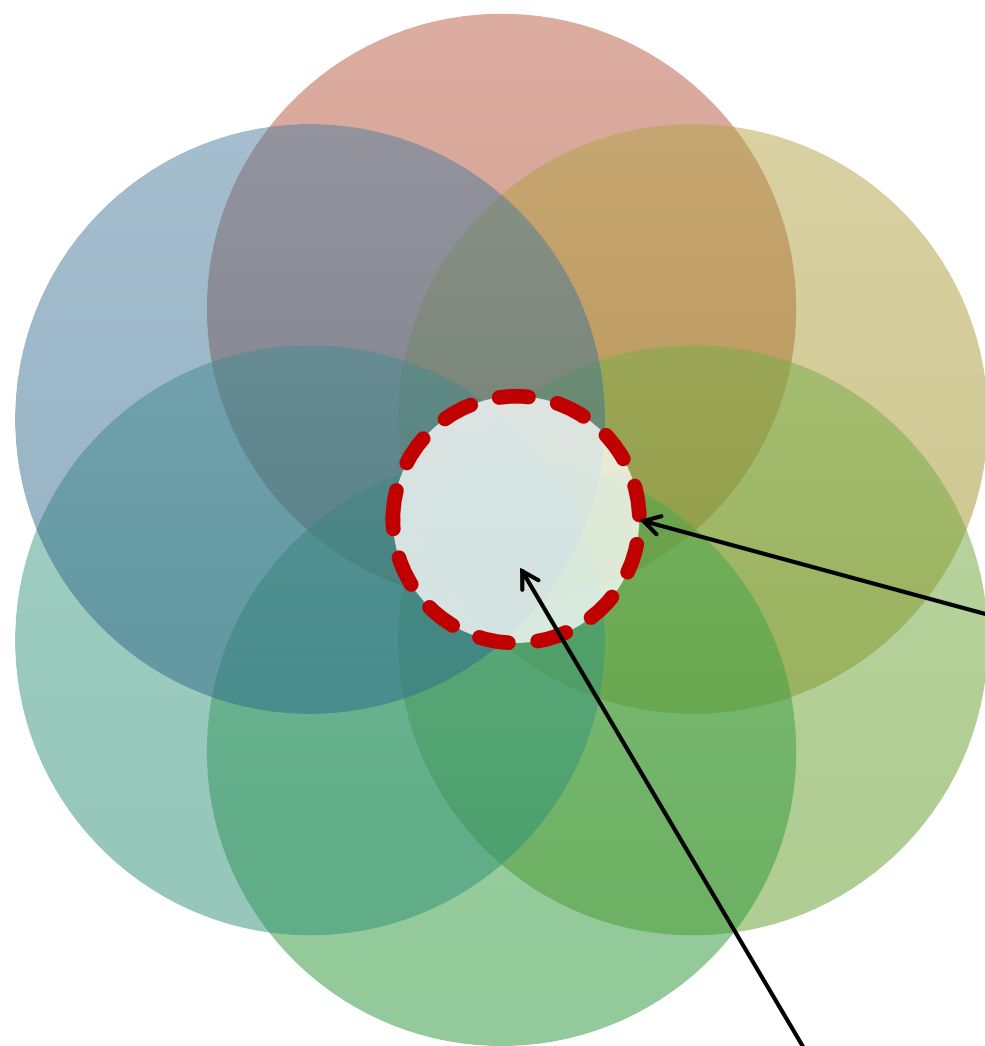

CYCLE OF OWNERSHIP

1. Clarity

The Convener

The Opening

2. Groundwork

CONVENING GROUP

Project background

Research

Questions answered

Outreach

3. Skilled Facilitation

KEYS TO A GOOD MEETING

—

Ground rules

—

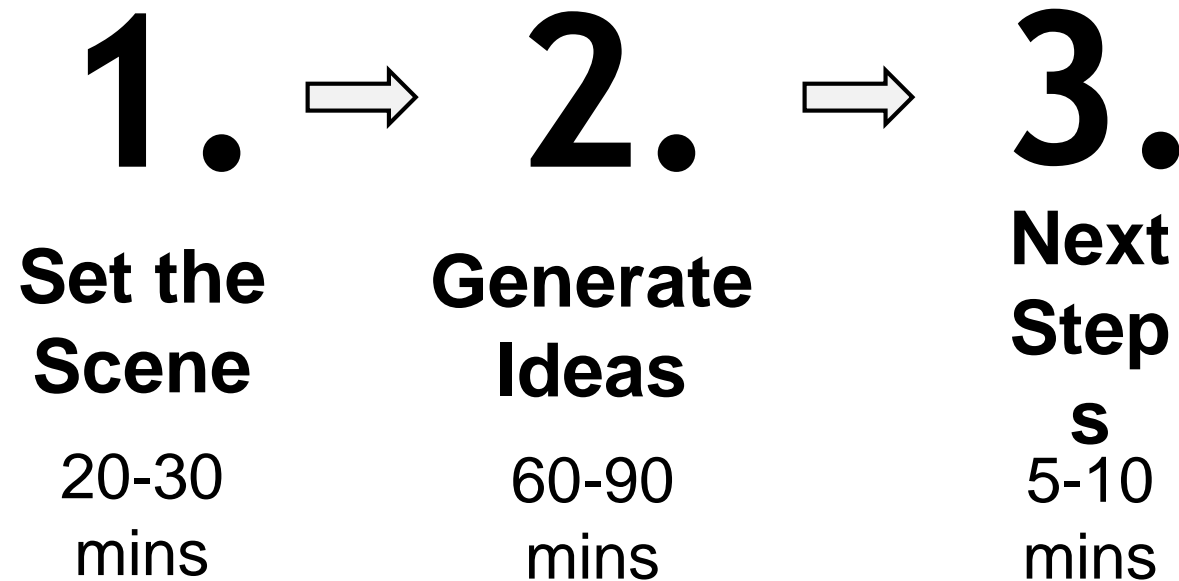

—

Clear structure

—

STRUCTURE OF A MEETING

4. Servant Designers and Planners

5. Momentum & Action

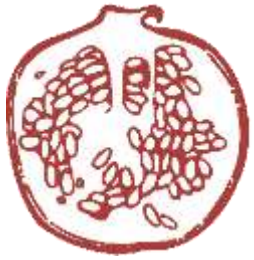

Balance decisiveness and inclusiveness

Under the right conditions, communities are capable of
EXTRAORDINARY WORK

POMEGRANATE CENTER

The Art and Practice of Community Collaboration

Eric Higbee | Executive Director

eric@pomegranate.org

425.557.6412